

EQUAL EXCHANGE SALE (YES, REALLY!)

Once again, thanks to Lorrie's great technology skills, we will have a virtual sale in time for our church family to buy gifts for the holiday season. Stock up now on all the chocolate/coffee/nuts/goodies your friends and family love to receive AND help out small farmers around the globe. We will have some new choices of chocolate bars, olive oil in abundance and a new "spicy" hot cocoa. Sadly, no dried mangos are currently available. You may order freely from the list provided on the church website until October 31. We will then put in an order to EE with expected arrival in time to be picked up at the Deliver-Your-Pledge-Card Celebration Drive-through on Saturday, November 14.

Here is an update from Equal Exchange

"Our alternative trade model has been a powerful resource for small-scale farmers during the pandemic. The cooperatives we support have played a vital role for their members and the surrounding communities, helping them in ways that would not have existed if they were trying to make it on their own. For example, ACOFAGRO, one of our cacao partners in Peru, used fair trade premium payments from Equal Exchange to provide food, masks and cleaning supplies to co-op members in two different communities. Members of the San Fernando coffee cooperative in Peru organized to send a truck carrying home-grown produce to their children working or studying in the city without reliable access to healthy food during the pandemic. Banana farmers at AsoGuabo in Ecuador used fair trade premium funds to purchase PPE for medical workers in the community and mobilized their co-op logistics resources to transport medicines and supplies to local hospitals at a time when transportation was significantly restricted as a result of curfew measures. There are many moving accounts of how our alternative trade network supports communities as they navigate the global crisis."

Please order and pay for your products here; if you prefer to pay by check you may do that and bring your check when you pick up your order. If you have questions, contact Lorraine Lyter-Reed at ranielou@hotmail.com.
