The Gershenson Lecture was established to honor Elliot Gershenson, President Emeritus of Interfaith Ministries for Greater Houston. Focusing on topics of religion, ethics, and peace, these lectures have, at their core, the mission of educating, inspiring, and providing a platform for understanding.

A sought after-speaker, Imam Hendi is the Muslim chaplain at Georgetown University, the first American university to hire a full-time Muslim chaplain. Imam Hendi has presented a multitude of interfaith and general lectures in the United States, Asia, Africa, Europe, Central Asia, Eastern Europe, Australia and the Middle East over the past 14 years, including more than 62 countries and 45 US states. Imam Hendi's undergraduate and graduate education are in Islamic Studies and comparative religions with interest in inter-religious dialogue and relations. In 2012, Imam Hendi was named as one of the world's 500 most influential Muslims for his work as an interfaith dialogue activist and trainer. His presentation will focus on the importance of dialogue as a way of fostering respect and understanding and challenging stereotypes and prejudice.

We offer our sincere gratitude to TRUTH, St. Philip Presbyterian Church, and IM's Multi-Faith Council for their support of this event.
