SWEET TREATS THAT MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Looking for chocolaty sweets that you can feel good about sharing this Valentine's Day? Try an alternative to conventional chocolates produced in an unfair system (often using child labor on “Big Chocolate” plantations). Equal Exchange’s organic, fairly traded chocolates are made with transparently sourced ingredients grown by small farmer co-ops.

St. Philip’s Peacemaking and Social Justice Committee is offering the chocolate bars you love – and more – for personal purchase on Sunday, February 11, from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. and 12:30 to 1:00 p.m., in the Gathering Area.

But Equal Exchange chocolates – and Valentine’s Day ideas – come in many forms! Maybe you’d like to surprise your sweetie with their favorite chocolate-covered fruit using Equal Exchange’s semi-sweet chocolate chips. Or you could pick up some bagged dark chocolate minis to hand out in classrooms or to coworkers, or to share at your next community gathering.

And Equal Exchange is more than just chocolate! We will also offer a wide array of coffees, teas, and hot cocoas, and select nuts and fruits, as well as the ever-popular olive oil. (Hint: Come early! Quantities are limited.)

Your purchases support organic farming methods that are gentle on God’s Earth, and investments in regenerative agriculture that help farmers combat climate change. Pre-harvest financing of crops allows farmers to earn a dependable living wage, improve their communities, and remain in their home countries. With your support, Equal Exchange’s alternative trade model works to change our unjust food system. Pretty good return on the price of a chocolate bar!

The annual meeting of the congregation will be in the Sanctuary on February 11, immediately following the 11:00 service. The meeting will include a review of 2023, presentation of the approved operating budget for 2024, and consideration of changes to the pastors’ terms of call.

LENTEN LECTIO DIVINA PRAYER GROUP

The ancient desert mystics believed that scripture was like a love letter written to us by God, and the meditative scriptural reflection known as Lectio Divina ("divine reading") assumes that God speaks to us intimately, God is already praying in us, and we'll experience a profound encounter with the heart of God, rather than an intellectual study of scripture. Beginning February 19, Keatan will guide the group through the four cycles of Lectio (read, reflect, respond, rest) every Monday morning at 9:00-9:20 a.m. for the season of Lent. To receive the Zoom link sent early Monday mornings, email Keatan at: keatan@saintphilip.net

CCSC FOOD FAIR FEBRUARY CHURCHWIDE VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

Christian Community Service Center

The St. Philip congregation is invited to volunteer at the CCSC Food Fair on Saturday, February 24 from 9 AM to 12 PM at the CCSC Southwest Food Pantry at the Gethsemane Campus of St. Luke's United Methodist Church. The address is 6856 Bellaire Blvd. We need at least 10 to 15 volunteers.

Volunteers are needed to greet and guide clients, organize and pass out the nutritious fruits and vegetables, and more. Please note that nearly all volunteer jobs will occur outdoors and require light to moderate lifting. Wear comfortable clothing/shoes, hats and sunscreen. Water will be supplied. Please leave your valuable items/purses at home.

Sign up in the Gathering Area at the Mission Committee table on Sundays, February 11, and 18, in MyStPhilip—under Serving tab, or email St. Philip Mission Committee Chairwoman Angelina Fonseca-Grewal at mision@saintphilip.net to RSVP your attendance. Angelina can drive 4 additional church members if you need a ride.

Since 2009, Christian Community Service Center (CCSC) has hosted Food Fair events to serve our neighbors in need. A Food Fair looks much like a farmers' market. CCSC receives several pallets of fresh produce/food products from the Houston Food Bank to distribute to hundreds of community members. This activity supplements CCSC's ongoing food pantry efforts to eliminate hunger in the Alief/Sharpstown/Gulfton area. St. Philip grants fund the Emergency Services and Back to School Programs, and makes in-kind donations to the food pantry with fresh vegetables from the St. Philip Community Garden.

CCSC AZALEA GALA INVITATION

The St. Philip congregation is invited to attend the CCSC 2024 Azalea Gala on Wednesday, April 17 at the Post Oak Hotel at 6 PM. Tickets can be purchased at Azalea Gala | Christian Community Service Center \(ccschouston.org\) or email spybus@ccschouston.org.

The mission of the Christian Community Service Center (CCSC) is to serve the poor, hungry, disabled and otherwise needy while respecting their religious, ethnic or cultural differences. St. Philip grants support the Emergency Services and Back To School programs and help cover agency administrative costs to enable CCSC to serve struggling individuals and families. CCSC depends on the generosity of its 39 member churches to fund administrative costs. CCSC receives donations from individuals, churches, corporations, schools, clubs, and community groups, from fundraising events such as the annual Azalea Gala, and CCSC receives in-kind donations through food and hygiene item drives.

Over the past 120 years, PCHAS has created programs that greatly improve children's lives enabling their recovery from abuse, abandonment, and other forms of neglect. In recent years PCHAS began to focus on strengthening families so that they can prevent abuse or neglect from occurring. Both the SPF and CF Programs are geared toward helping strengthen and educate families so that they can stay together. The PCHAS 2023 Impact video can be viewed here: Presbyterian Children's Homes & Services | 2023 PCHAS Recap Video.

The Women's Home builds communities that strengthen women and supports families as they reclaim their stability. The Women's Home developed community-based programming to serve low-income families in Spring Branch East over the past decade. The Women's Home operates two affordable housing communities and a collaborative community service center that help families thrive. The service center offers primary and behavioral health care, youth development services, adult education, workforce development training, basic needs assistance, and other wrap-around support services.

The Women's Home employs a unique WholeLife® Model of care approach, and they help women create and achieve goals to improve their well-being in six areas - emotional, financial, physical, social, spiritual, and vocational. The Women's Home goal is for clients to acquire and maintain the four pillars of personal independence - mental stability, sobriety, a sustaining source of income and a safe, permanent home. Of the clients that completed the intensive phase, 96% established mental stability, 100% maintained sobriety, and 6% chose to continue their recovery journey in the supportive treatment phase. Among the clients who participated in the supportive phase for at least six months or longer, 100% maintained mentally stability, 74% maintained sobriety, 100% left with income and 53% obtained permanent housing.

St. Philip helps with the cost of recovery supplies for women participating in the Residential Treatment Program. In 2023, The Women's Home helped 104 women reclaim their lives who were homeless due to mental health and substance use disorders. The Residential Treatment Program offers two levels of treatment for women at different stages of recovery, an 89-day Intensive Program and longer-term Supportive Program (6-18 months). This year we provided residential behavioral health treatment and wrap-around services to 38 clients in the Intensive Treatment Phase and 80 clients in the Supportive Treatment Phase.

Mission of Yahweh (MOY) serves the Houston area as the only emergency /transitional shelter for homeless women/children offering a unique continuum of services for up to two years. The Emergency/Crisis Program typically houses 75% of residents for 30-90 days while the Transitional Living Program houses approximately 25% for up to two years. In 2023, MOY's goal was to serve 400 homeless women/children (an increase of 118 over 2022) with a minimum of 50% of exiting residents achieving independence in permanent housing. SEARCH SPEAKER SERIES

John Lemen, Mary McGuire and Angelina Fonseca-Grewal attended the Zoom webinar hosted by St. Philip mission partner SEARCH on Thursday, January 18 via Zoom. SEARCH outlined the current challenges Houston is facing including the Affordable Housing Crisis, decommissioning encampments around the city, and the funding cliff of CCHIP Funds coming to an end in 2024 issued to the City of Houston during COVID through the American Rescue Act .

3,270 homeless Houstonians can be found daily around the city and 26,000 will be homeless this year. But SEARCH and other partnering organizations have reduced homelessness by 61% between 2011 to 2023.

They did this by building a coordinated accessible system, and Houston has held flat in homelessness since COVID. A model is in place to find permanent housing, then provide holistic services for changing lives, including medical, mental health and educational services. SEARCH utilizes a homeless response system to achieve maximum impact by deploying the case management model which involves engaging and stabilizing the client, housing, educating, job placement, and supporting clients that are self-sufficient to earn an income.

St. Philip's mission partner SEARCH is holding their next Speaker Series Webinar titled Housing and Homelessness on Thursday, March 21 at 12 PM CST. St. Philip members can register here at Meeting Registration - Zoom or email Hannah Mannion at hmannon@searchhomeless.org, or call 832-232-8715.
