PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

MIKE AYERS

We welcome new member Mike Ayers to St. Philip. He joins us by reaffirmation of faith. Mike is a geologist who grew up and went to school in Montana. He also served in the military during Operation Desert Storm. He recently moved back to Houston after several years in Wyoming. Mike is married to Beth Ayers, a long-time member of Central and St. Philip, and they have two sons, Will and Jake. Mike is interested in getting involved in Bible study; he has been studying Greek and enjoys discussing theology. Mike says he is happy to be back in Houston and at St. Philip. Welcome, Mike!

Jacque joined St. Philip in February. She is a retired teacher who grew up in Indiana and went to college in Florida at Stetson and the University of South Florida. Jacquie has lived in Houston since the early 1980s, but she loves to travel and recently spent a year living in the mountains in Georgia. She has been active at St. Philip for several months, having heard about St. Philip through a friend. She appreciates the friendly congregation and is interested in mission; she has already become involved in some of our mission activities. Welcome, Jacquie!

KEITH FLETCHER

We welcome to membership Keith Fletcher, who has been an active friend of St. Philip for some time. Keith learned about St. Philip through his wife Lane, a member of St. Philip. ## PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Friends,

The Board of Pensions of the Presbyterian Church (USA) sponsors conferences designed to help ministers at different stages of their careers. Called CREDO conferences, these events seek to provide us with tools to cultivate wholeness in all the areas of our lives (spiritual, vocational, financial, and physical) so that we might better serve the church. Over the past couple of years, Keatan and Omar have had opportunities to attend CREDO conferences for recently ordained ministers.

Last month, I was invited to attend the CREDO conference for those at the "mid-career" stage. Held in Arkansas at Ferncliff Conference Center, this event gathered eleven pastors and eight CREDO faculty members from across the country. The faculty included seasoned ministers, a physician, an accountant, a couple of counselors, and a Board of Pensions representative. The pastors came from all sorts of different ministry settings; some were in relatively new positions, while others had been serving in the same place for years. Over the week, we had presentations from the faculty on various aspects of well-being, a diversity of worship experiences led by the faculty, opportunities for individual consultations with faculty members regarding particular areas of interest (and struggle), time and space for reflection, and lots of informal discussion with peers.

The conference was a wonderful occasion for me to identify and affirm essential values and to discern resources needed for the coming years. I feel like I gained a lot by attending. As I shared with the Session upon my return, the CREDO conference made me all the more grateful for the call to serve at St. Philip and for the abundant opportunities God has placed before our congregation.

Faithfully yours,

ATTENTION COLLEGE STUDENTS

The Mark and Velma Freeman Scholarship Fund annually provides scholarship assistance to St. Philip students attending college or graduate school. The application form is now available on the church website or by contacting the church office. All application materials need to be returned to the church BEFORE May 1. More info | Application Form: saintphilip.net/SubmitForms.

MIDWEEK LENT SERVICES

As in past years, we will have worship each Wednesday at noon through April 10 with guest preachers joining us to offer sermons on the Passion of Jesus. The upcoming preachers include Rose Niles from Austin Seminary on April 3; and Nathan Carlin from McGovern Medical School on April 10. Each week lunch will be available in the Gathering Area at 12:30.

COMMUNICATIONS & TECHNOLOGY

SMILE!

We invite all members new and old to have your picture taken for the 2019 Church Directory on April 7, 14, or 21. Please take your family anytime from 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. to the Library. Dan Cleveland will capture you in your best pose. Even if you're not being photographed, it's helpful for us if you can stop at the registration table to confirm your directory information. Directories should be available in May. You can always use MyStPhilip or ChurchLife to look up other members contact info. Go to www.saintphilip.net to learn more.

The purpose of the Communication & Technology Committee is to oversee communications both within the congregation and to the community. The Committee coordinates its work with all other committees, ensuring that the church's publicity reflects the overall mission of the church and accurately portrays its ministries and emphases.

time, he enjoys running, Bible study, and participating in the Kairos Prison Ministry. Keith and Lane have four adult children and four young grandchildren. He likes the friendliness and size of the St. Philip congregation, and he plans to continue to participate in worship and Christian Education opportunities at St. Philip. Welcome, Keith!

MIKE GABEL

Mike returns to active membership at St. Philip, where he and his late wife Patricia were members. They moved away from Houston a decade ago, but Mike has now returned to Houston and rejoined the church. Mike grew up and went to school, college, and law school in Michigan. He practiced law in Houston and elsewhere, but he now has retired from active practice. He will split his time between Houston and Staunton, Virginia, where he is active in church and musical groups. Mike enjoys reading and singing, and he plans to get involved in St. Philip's music programs. Welcome back, Mike!

WELCOME & MEMBERSHIP

GUIDED TOUR OF ST. PHILIP ON SUNDAY, APRIL 7

We probably all know where the Sanctuary is, but do you know where the Choir Room is? Or the Children's Chapel Room? Or the Pastors' Offices? The Welcoming and Membership Committee invites anyone interested—and especially those who may be newer to the St. Philip community—to join us in a short walking tour of the St. Philip campus, beginning at 9:30 on April 7. We'll visit the key spaces where we worship, serve, learn, and share fellowship. You'll also hear a bit about some of the activities of our congregation, like the Men's Fellowship and the Mission Committee. Everyone is welcome, whether you are new to St. Philip or not. You'll get to know your church home better, and there will be donuts!

PEACEMAKING & SOCIAL JUSTICE

The Coffee Team will be offering chocolate minis in Easter packets of 10, and chocolate bars, along with coffee, tea and olive oil, on April 7, in the Gathering Area before and after the 11 a.m. worship service.

After Halloween, Easter is the second most important occasion for chocolate sales, and each year Americans consume over 70 million pounds of chocolate the week leading up to Easter. However, much less than 1% of that chocolate is fairly traded, which Equal Exchange seeks to change.

Equal Exchange's products are 100% Fair Trade, traded, benefiting more than 40 small farmer co-operatives in 25 countries around the world.

Your support of small farmers, who use sustainable farming techniques, has added to our ability to be certified as an "Earth Care Congregation"! Congratulations to you, who have contributed to the effort in this way and many others.

EASTER LILIES

We will be taking donations of any amount for lilies to adorn the sanctuary on Easter. Easter lilies are symbolic of purity and the resurrection of Jesus Christ. They adorn Christian houses of worship on the holy day that shares their name.

There are two ways to make your gift: 1) complete the form in the Sunday announcements and place in an envelope in the offering plate 2) go online and make a donation to the flower fund. Please include: in honor of or in memory of and the name(s) you wish to recognize, as well as how you would like your name to appear. Contact Lorrie Castle at 713-622-4807 or email if you have questions.

The purpose of the Welcoming and Membership Committee is to invite persons to become members of St. Philip and encourage them to respond to the Gospel by becoming active members in the life and work of the church.

The purpose of the Peacemaking and Social Justice Committee is to highlight and support the denomination's Peacemaking Program; and to maintain congregational awareness of issues of social, racial, and economic injustice; human rights; arms control, and environmental degradation; and all forms of exclusion and prejudice [as described more fully in St. Philip's Commitment to Peacemaking (2003)].

Mission of Christian Education Committee: Empowered by the Holy Spirit, to guide us as we engage and inspire as to build faith and discipleship within the children of God.

MUSIC AT ST. PHILIP

Sunday afternoon, March 24, was the second annual recital by the winners of the Rochelle Lieblich Kahan Memorial Fund Competition for Child Piano Prodigies. What a thrilling and joyful event this is to see and hear these young pianists perform their winning pieces for an appreciative audience. Performers are the top three winners of this year's competition plus winners from earlier competitions. Works by composers such as J. S. Bach, Mozart, Liszt, Chopin, Mendelssohn, and Albéniz were performed by musically mature and technically accomplished children. The competition is open to children from ages 6 to 9, and this year's winners were all 9 years old. Music at St. Philip will be hosting this recital again next year on March 29, 2020. Put it on your calendar now and don't miss it... it is truly a joy to hear these children!
