THE NEWSLETTER OF ST. PHILIP
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THE 2019 SUMMER LECTURE SERIES

REV. DR. CYNTHIA RIGBY

Christ is risen, indeed!

So . . . now what do we do? Especially in light of the fact that suffering continues despite our claim that Christ has conquered sin and death? What does it look like to live as people of hope while still having our eyes wide open to the sufferings of the world? In this three-part series, we will consider how hope deepens our grief, remedies our despair, expects the impossible, and compels us to act in ways that change the world for the better. Dr. Cynthia Rigby's first lecture will be at 9:00 a.m. in the Choir Room will be Hope & Despair, followed by Hope & Madness at 10:15 and finally Hope & Action at 12:30 p.m. on August 17. Lunch will be available for $5 in the Fellowship Hall at 11:30 a.m.

Dr. Rigby is a highly sought-after speaker who enjoys lecturing and teaching for academic, church, and denominational events both domestically and internationally. Dr. Rigby is actively engaged with congregations, preaching, teaching adult education classes, and leading church conferences on why Christian doctrines matter in real life. An ordained minister in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), Professor Rigby serves on the board of the Presbyterian Publishing Corporation and recently served as an author of the Sarasota Statement for the Next Church (2017). Dr. Rigby's latest book is Holding Faith: A Practical Introduction to Christian Faith (Abingdon Press, 2018). She is also the author of The Promotion of Social Righteousness (Witherspoon Press, 2010) and is co-editor (with Beverly Gaventa) of Blessed One: Protestant Perspectives on Mary (Westminster John Knox Press, 2002) and editor of Power, Powerlessness, and the Divine: New Inquiries in Bible and Theology (Duke University Press, 1997). She is currently completing a book on Christian feminist theology for Baker Academic Press and a book on "grace and play". Register for the lectures and see more details at saintphilip.net.

Dr. Rigby will preach on Sunday, August 18 at both the 9:00 and the 11:00 worship services.

The Summer Lecture Series at St. Philip focuses on speakers and subjects that enhance our Christian faith, challenge our thoughts, and deepen our faith and service.

Purpose. The purpose of the Peacemaking and Social Justice Committee is to highlight and support the denomination's Peacemaking Program; and, as described more fully in St. Philip's Commitment to Peacemaking (2003), to do peacemaking through:

- encouraging worship that expresses the reality of God's peace-giving,
- encouraging prayer and Bible study,
- creating opportunities for peacemaking in families and community living,
- working with and supporting community ministries,
- supporting study and response to global issues,
- studying global security concerns,
- making peace with the Earth, and
- receiving the Peace and Global Witness Offering.

PASTOR'S CORNER

"I don't think there's anything holier than hope," said Lily Maguire, when asked where she saw God in our visit to the Whitney Plantation on the banks of the Mississippi River in Louisiana. In a place which seemed utterly God-forsaken for its cruel, violent, and abhorrent history of chattel slavery, the youth on the Spiritual Pilgrimage still sought signs of God's mercy among humanity's inhumanity. Lily reflected on how remarkable she thought every enslaved adult and child was for continuing to live each day in the hope of freedom. Conversation flowed freely around the dinner table at University Presbyterian Church in Baton Rouge as Claire Steward, Austin Lippincott, Elias Han, and Joseph Webster reflected on the museum's existence as revealing God's work in educating people about slavery. Lulu Murphy and Callie Bream saw God in this labor of love to honor the dignity and worth of each of these children of God by name. Historians and curators of the collection searched ardently through receipts of sale from slave owners and other documents to gather and memorialize as many names of enslaved individuals as possible. This rich conversation represents only the first day in an 11-day pilgrimage to Montreat throughout multiple cities in the south.

Less than a week after the conclusion of our pilgrimage, a mass shooter ravaged the community of El Paso, not far from the banks of the Rio Grande in Texas. In his own words, he wrote that he denounced "racial mixing" and called on white supremacist ideas to express his beliefs. It is for such a time as this that we made our pilgrimage. The education we gained in museums must be taken into streets, schools, and civic life for the sake of racial justice and equality in the present moment. Our nation needs people of faith prepared to speak against racist ideas and actions, committed to the idea that each person is made in the image of God. We need leaders who refuse to believe this is just "how it is," and who are living and working for the day when peace reigns. In a week of profound sorrow and unspeakable loss, may we join our youth in the holy practice of hope for our world.

Grace and peace,
Keatan

PEACEMAKING & SOCIAL JUSTICE

Grant Approval for Film Showing

Funding has been received from Presbytery's Lynn Johnson Social Justice grant that will allow for a showing here of the documentary, Out of Order. This film describes the complex experiences of LGBTQ persons working to achieve ordination in the PC(USA). What have been the experiences of LGBTQ clergy who have been told by word or action that they weren't welcome in their own churches? Or in their home presbyteries? Joining us for the showing and leading a time of audience participation will be two friends of St. Philip, the Rev. Michael Kirby, Sr. Pastor at Northminster Presbyterian Church in Evanston, IL and the Rev. Susan Quinn Bryan, retired minister at Community of the Servant Savior Presbyterian Church in Houston.

The film presentation will be publicized throughout the Presbytery. It will also provide a wonderful opportunity for all St. Philipians to get a better understanding of this denominational issue still confronting our congregations and presbyteries. Saturday, September 28, 3-5 p.m. in the Dining Room. Everyone is welcome!

MUSIC AT ST. PHILIP 2019-2020 SEASON

August 2019

Dear friends,

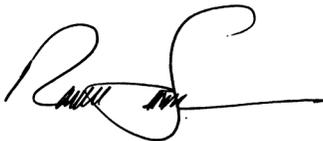

With summer already at the midway point, a new season of programs under the umbrella of Music at St. Philip is rapidly approaching. We hope you were able to attend the first of our 2019 Summer Keyboard Concerts last month with the unparalleled artistry of Matthew Dirst and friends. We are so fortunate to enjoy Matthew's gifts in weekly worship here at St. Philip, but concerts like this provide an opportunity for us to revel in the beauty of music for music's sake.

Every season of Music at St. Philip is exciting, but our upcoming 2019-2020 season is particularly so as we celebrate ten years with our magnificent Paul Fritts organ — ten years of empowering congregational song, a decade of captivating choral works accompanied by the organ, and more than 500 weeks of worship inspired by great organ music. To celebrate the organ anniversary, our 2019-2020 Music at St. Philip season will culminate in a gala concert featuring acclaimed French organ duo Olivier Vernet and Cédric Meckler. Together they will present a program of music unlike anything ever heard before on the Fritts organ, just as ten years ago the beautiful sounds of this instrument were as yet unheard, and the national and international status our organ has gained was still just a dream. And why have just one star when you can have the power of two! Vernet and Meckler will leave everyone dazzled and moved by their incisive, highly-intuitive playing. We hope you will join us to celebrate the tenth anniversary of our glorious Fritts organ in April 2020. Between now and then we have a whole series of engaging programs planned — please see the attached schedule.

One of the many wonderful things about St. Philip is that we are able to offer world class programs like these free of charge. This is due in large measure to the generosity of St. Philip members who believe in the power of music to transform hearts and bring harmony and beauty to our troubled world through a shared passion for the arts. Many of our artistic offerings engage members of our community who might not otherwise be aware of our church, but once they are inside, they experience the welcoming hospitality of St. Philip, and through these encounters we enter into relationship with our neighbors.

Though all of our Music at St. Philip programs are offered "free" — artists' fees, programs, receptions, and administrative costs add up to a considerable amount for each event. Free-will contributions are received after each program, but they do not cover all of our expenses, which is why we're reaching out to you as valued partners in our efforts to share great music with the people of St. Philip and the wider community. If you would like to help to ensure another season of spectacular Music at St. Philip programs, please consider a gift to the Music at St. Philip Fund. Any donation will be greatly appreciated, but if you would be interested in partially or fully underwriting a specific program, please let me know and I can provide you with further details.

We are all looking forward to another year of beautiful music here at St. Philip. Thank you as always for your gracious support.

MISSION

Help give a sailor a special Christmas gift this year! The Mission committee is accepting donations of personal items, such as those listed below, to fill the 2019 Seafarer's Christmas Boxes, through November 10. Each year congregations from the Houston area pack personal items that sailors use every day in empty shoeboxes and wrap them with Christmas paper. The boxes will be delivered to the Seafarer's Center, and then personally taken to the ships by the Port chaplains. Annually, over 10,000 wrapped boxes have been delivered to over 500 ships, from over 65 different countries. St. Philip will be packing boxes on November 10. The seafarers greatly cherish these gifts. On board the ships for many months at a time, away from their families, a personal touch of a gift is so important to these sailors.

Collection boxes are in the Gathering Area and in the Church Office for donations. See below for the items we are looking for.
