An Alternative to the Black Friday Doorbuster Dash!!!

Every year, St. Philip hosts an opportunity for the congregation to give gifts that not only are fun to give but that also support our church's vital mission partners and our church's mission to "engage the world with open minds, willing hands, and generous hearts." Serving as Christ's hands and feet in the world, these partners' nonprofit, cause-based work ranges from providing clean water, education, and nutrition to empowering individuals, families, and communities locally and abroad. When this sort of gifting occurs, it honors friends and family and enriches our relationships with our mission partners and our collective ministry in a broken and hurting world.

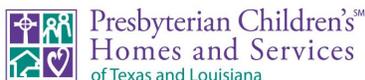

Our festivities will take place in the Fellowship Hall with a delicious soup and bread lunch. The proceeds from the lunch will go to support Kid's Against Hunger. We will have our usual vendors, with a few new ones as well. NewSpring is offering the exciting opportunity to own your very own miniature butterfly that is a replica of the one in the courtyard of the church. The youth will be selling jewelry made from keys from the Central Presbyterian campus. The jewelry includes beads and stones in the colors of our Sanctuary's mosaic wall to represent the beauty of St. Philip's merger with Central in membership and ministry. There will be a silent auction, including six special gift baskets; and an activity for the kids.

Remember, even if you don't want to purchase items, this is a wonderful opportunity to talk to mission partner representatives, and to learn what they do first hand. You may then make a contribution to the mission right on the spot, which also can be made in the name of a loved one. To make things easier for everyone, we will be able to check out with cash, checks, or credit cards.

If you like to bake, you also have the opportunity to contribute to the cause by bringing a special baked good to the Market to be sold to raise funds for one of our many great Mission Partners. If you would like to contribute, please bring your baked cookies, sweet breads, or cakes, fully wrapped for freshness and ease of transport to the Fellowship Hall before 10:45 a.m. the morning of the Market.

Mark your calendar for November 18, 9:30 a.m. till 10:45 and 12:00 p.m. till 1, in the Fellowship Hall. What a great event to share with your fellow St. Philipians as we move toward the Advent Season!

ALTERNATIVE MARKET

These are some of the Mission Partners that will be represented at the Alternative Market on November 18.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

Presbyterian Women has kicked off and we are in full swing for the 2018-2019 year, thanks to our wonderful pastor, Rev. Keatan King who keynoted our Fall Gathering on September 23. We had over forty women to attend! We shared stories on our lives, and we provided listening ears and open hearts as well. We had women from every age imaginable enjoy each other's company over lunch and our Bible lesson.

We hope to see more women around at our next event and/or check out one of our Circle meetings! Check the Philip-Eye and bulletins for updates!

LIVING GENEROUSLY

Chuck Seidel's November 4 stewardship reflection included the following:

When I began attending St. Philip, a weird thing started to happen to me during the church service, I would cry which is way out of character for me. I always had to be sure I brought Kleenex. It was very embarrassing so if you noticed, I am glad you didn't say anything.

It happened most often when Keatan was leading the "Declaration of Forgiveness". She told of God's love, of being part of a family, of being welcomed, of not being alone. The inclusiveness, the sincerity was so comforting. I realized it was not sadness that brought the tears but the feeling of inclusion and welcome.

I seldom need Kleenex now because I have found a pew-family. I sit pretty much in the same place each Sunday as I have noticed you do too. Jan is a member of my pew-family. Each Sunday we check on how the other is doing, we share our favorite comic from the Sunday morning paper; we celebrate when the LSU football team wins, and other similarly important worldly events. I miss her when she isn't there. I find my place in the sanctuary by looking for her. Where else can you feel so welcomed?

Our mantra, "We Choose Welcome", isn't just something that appears on our web page. It is something that permeates everything we do. In our current climate of tribalism and division, St. Philip is a beacon showing that this is not how it has to be and more importantly how it should not be. I am going to live generously for my family. Come and join me.

To finish I would like to share two quotes from past US presidents. In his second inaugural address President George W Bush said:

"Make the choice to serve in a cause larger than your wants, larger than yourself".

In President Barack Obama's farewell address, he said: "Show up. Dive in. Persevere".

Living Generously is asking us to serve a cause larger than our wants, large than ourselves. So, show up, dive in and persevere.

Pledge Cards will be received in worship November 11 or may be returned to the church office anytime. You may also go to MyStPhilip and make your pledge through your account.

MISSION

SEAFARERS ~ 2018

SEAFARERS' CHRISTMAS BOXES

Join the Mission Committee in the Arts & Crafts Studio for fellowship and a soup & salad lunch after worship Sunday, November 11, following 11:00 am worship. Following lunch, join in the fun of packing the Christmas boxes for the Seafarers. Your family will want to take advantage of this opportunity for hands-on mission work, extending warm, Houston, Texas hospitality to Seafarers who are far from home.

CHRISTMAS TIME IS COMING

Since 1980, Christian Community Service Center (CCSC) has spread holiday cheer through Jingle Bell Express! With your help, 2,500 under-served children will receive new toys, books and a holiday food package for his/her family. At Jingle Bell Express, parents or heads of households can choose their children's unwrapped gifts from age-sorted bins, so that they participate in what their child will receive. Here's how to help your neighbors in need have a beautiful Christmas!

Next week we will begin signing up volunteers to help organize and distribute toys for CCSC Jingle Bell Express. We need volunteers the week of December 3 for the following:

Monday, 6-8 p.m.: Help unload truck and supplies

Tuesday, 6-8 p.m.: Assemble food packages

Wednesday, 6-8 p.m.: Sort and arrange toys and books

Friday and Saturday, 7:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.: Assist client families as they “shop” for toys, books and food packages.

Any (or all!) of these opportunities are wonderful events for all ages, and give families a chance to make a difference in someone's Christmas. Sign-up table will be in the Gathering Area starting this Sunday, and running through November.

St. Philip Families

On Saturday, December 8 from 9 - 11 a.m.—we will meet at the check-in desk at Bellaire United Methodist Church, 4417 Bellaire Blvd., 77401. After our shift is finished, we will go for lunch at Cafe Express in Meyerland Plaza. All ages are welcome, accompanied by a parent or guardian. You can

Music at St Philip

After a very rainy Halloween, 2018, November 1 was transformed into a beautiful, crisp, fall day...a perfect morning to deliver the 110 quilts that were blessed on Sunday, October 28.

Thirty-nine quilts went to Interfaith Ministries (IM) for their refugee outreach program. IM serves fifty refugee families in the city, helping them furnish apartments with gently used items. Elena Korbut, who heads the refugee program at IM, remarked, "The quilts will certainly add a welcoming touch."

Seventy quilts were delivered to House of Tiny Treasures. The enrollment there is seventy-two, often with children coming and going as the family circumstance changes. These children are homeless and living in shelters, or they live in deep poverty. The children are each given a quilt to snuggle under during nap time and take their quilt with them when they leave the school. Director, Mitzi Bartlett, was particularly pleased that one of the quilts had a rocket ship appliquéd to the quilt..."the children just finished studying the planets and they will be thrilled."

If you are interested in more information about the St. Philip Stitcher mission and the agencies that receive our quilts, please contact Hope Wilmarth: hlwilmarth@hotmail.com
