ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING IS THE RECIPIENT OF THE MARCH COMMUNION OFFERINGS MARCH 24—MARCH 27

Around the world, people lack access to food, clean water, sanitation, education, and opportunity. Each gift to One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS) serves to help change the lives of people in these challenging situations.

OGHS makes a difference in the world through three impactful programs;

- Presbyterian Disaster Assistance - Works within communities as they recover and find hope after the devastation of natural or human-caused disasters.
- Receives 32% of funds raised.
- Presbyterian Hunger Program - Takes action to alleviate hunger and its systemic causes, and helps create access to healthy food for entire communities.
- Receives 36% of funds raised.
- Self-Development of People - Partners with people and communities with tools for development and education to alleviate poverty, oppression, and injustice.
- Receives 32% of funds raised.

Today projects supported by OGHS are under way in more than 100 countries, supported by 29 participating denominations. This offering provides us a way to share God's love with our neighbors in need.

BERING OMEGA COMMUNITY SERVICES RECIPIENT OF APRIL 3 JAZZ COMMUNION SERVICE

The mission of Bering Omega Community Services is to nurture the well-being and meet the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of persons affected by HIV/AIDS through compassionate health care and social services. It is a 501(c) (3) nonprofit human-service organization that provides housing assistance, adult day care, residential hospice care, and dental services to people living with HIV/AIDS in the greater Houston and southeast Texas areas.

Houston, and the surrounding area, is greatly impacted by HIV/AIDS. Among U.S. cities with populations of 500,000 or more, Houston is ranked thirteenth in terms of HIV positive population, according to the CDC. The underserved members of our community often cannot afford the care they need to prevent the rapid deterioration of their health. And the social stigmas that accompany the disease often make it even more difficult for these people to receive adequate medical care or retain a job.

Bering Omega's programs:

- The Dental Clinic provides comprehensive and restorative dental care addressing the rare oral health issues associated with HIV.
- Its Day Treatment Program provides nursing care, peer support groups, nutritional counseling, educational seminars and healing art therapy. Because proper nutrition is essential to managing their health and medications, the Day Treatment Program also provides clients with two hot meals and two snacks each day and food assistance to help them through weekends.
- Omega House provides compassionate end-of-life care to persons in the end stages of AIDS, allowing those clients to live their final days in comfort and with dignity.
- The Housing Assistance Program prevents homelessness and utility outages through rent, mortgage, and utility payments. Housing Assistance participants receive free financial planning and coaching on living skills for surviving on a limited income.

Dear Friends:

I am looking forward to my fifth Holy Week and Easter at St. Philip. Palm Sunday is March 20. We will worship as usual at 8:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. The 11:00 a.m. service includes a children's procession of palms. Keatan is preaching that day. On Maundy Thursday, we worship at 7:00 p.m. We remember Jesus' final night with his disciples and his last meal with them. Omar is preaching that evening and the St. Philip Choir will sing. After communion, the chancel is stripped of decoration, symbolizing the abandonment of Jesus by his disciples and friends. We leave the sanctuary that night in silence.

On Good Friday we have two worship services. At 12 noon we commemorate the death of Jesus with scripture and song and in the presence of the veiled cross. At 8:00 p.m. we are holding a Service of Tenebrae. In this dramatic service, shadows slowly gather in the room as we encounter again the Passion of Jesus. With each reading, a candle is extinguished. The service concludes in darkness. We are also offering a worship opportunity on Holy Saturday at 5:00 p.m.. Matthew Dirst and friends lead us in a musical meditation for Holy Week, exploring the depth and power of these days through music.

Easter Sunday is March 27. Our first service of Easter at 8:30 a.m. has us gather in the narthex and then proceed by candlelight into the dark sanctuary, which is then bathed in the light of the proclamation of resurrection. We then attend to key passages of the Bible, remembering God's saving acts, from the beginning of creation to the promise of a new creation. After the service of readings, we have a reaffirmation of baptism, and all are invited to come forward to the fount. There we mark our foreheads with water, hearing again the promise that in Jesus Christ we belong to God forever. Between services, there is breakfast in Fellowship Hall along with Easter crafts and activities for all. We ask you to bring flowers to decorate the cross in celebration of the resurrection. Our 11:00 a.m. festival service of Easter includes music from the St. Philip Choir. We celebrate with joy as we take the bread and share the cup and bear witness to God's love, a love stronger than death.

In a variety of styles and through a range of emotions, Holy Week invites us to experience the fullness of the gospel. I urge you to seek the spiritual benefits of these days and these services through your participation in all that is before us.

Faithfully yours,

MENTAL HEALTH SYMPOSIUM

Creating Communities of Grace and Hope

In every congregation there are people and families who struggle with mental health issues – some chronic, some more acute. In every case the community of faith is called upon to respond with compassion, understanding, and hope. At this symposium, experts in the area of mental health will present information on causes, treatment, research, and resources, how to reach beyond the stigma, and how to minister to people with mental health issues. The keynote speaker will be Elizabeth McIngvale-Cegelski, Ph.D., who is the founder of the Peace of Mind Foundation. Panelists include James Lomax, M.D., Matt Stanford, Ph.D., Sylvia Muzquiz-Drummond, M.D. and Rev. Dr. Peter Holmes.

All members and clergy of New Covenant Presbytery and any faith organization or church are invited to attend. This free symposium will be on Saturday, April 23 from 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church (5308 Buffalo Speedway, Houston, TX 77005). The Committee of Congregational Resources of the Presbytery of New Covenant is sponsoring this event and more information is available from Charlotte Kibler at 281-744-0171 orcharwk@juno.com

ADULT CLASSES

NEW LENTEN CLASS FOR ADULTS

Continuing through March 20, Keatan King and John Wurster lead an adult Sunday School class in the dining room at 9:30. "Who Do You Say That I Am?" is a class offering perspectives on the life of Jesus and how his life intersects ours. Scripture, poetry, images, and songs will help to frame our reflections and conversations. The topic for March 20 is "Jesus as Victim."

SPa CLASS - Room 200

The SPa (Saint Philip Adults) class is a fellowship of adults from all walks of life who gather for learning and community. Our discussion-based class meets each Sunday morning; we use the material from the well-regarded "Thoughtful Christian" series. Topics are timely and relevant. Please visit www.thethoughtfulchristian.com for more details.

BIBLE STUDY - Room 204

The class is engaged in a study of the book of 1 Samuel which tells of the rise of the kingdom of Israel and the eventual rise of David as their leader, revealing throughout the very human traits of the people involved in the narrative. The Bible study class utilizes the insights of a variety of scholars to expand our understanding of God's message of faithfulness to His people. Nancy Cook and Al Waldrop lead the discussions. All are welcome.

CHURCH & SOCIETY - Room 201 - March 20 - Our Enduring Fascination With Handel's "Messiah" and the Bach Passions: Handel's "Messiah" and the Bach Passions are more than just repertory staples; they're annual traditions or even rituals in many communities. What is it about these works that makes us want (or need) to hear them every year, and why these works and not others like them? What might a listener in Handel or Bach's own day have made of such music? Presented by Matthew Dirst, PhD, organist at St. Philip, Professor of Musicology at the Moores School of Music at University of Houston, artistic director for Ars Lyrica-Music of the Baroque. March 27 - Church and Society will not meet Easter Sunday so that we can join in with all the Easter activities at St. Philip.

April 3 - Seeking the Sacred in Psychotherapy and Life: Dr. James Lomax will lead a brief discussion about spiritual coping and spiritual struggles. He will then tell a clinical story that illustrates how "seeking the sacred" can have positive consequences for the patient and the therapist. Dr. Lomax is Professor of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, Baylor College of Medicine, Houston and long-time member of St. Philip. He is interested in the interface between psychiatry (from a psychoanalytic perspective), religion, and spirituality. His interdisciplinary efforts involve the Menninger Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, Baylor College of Medicine with the Institute for Spirituality and Health at the Texas Medical Center, the Department of Religious Studies, Rice University, the Hope and Healing Center and Institute at Saint Martin's Episcopal Church and many of the clinical entities of the Texas Medical Center. The purpose of these relationships is to deepen the exploration of phenomena, such as healing, grief, and response to loss, from the different perspectives from each of the aforementioned disciplines.

WEEKDAY STUDIES

MONDAY EVENING STUDY GROUP

We meet each second and fourth Monday, from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m., in the dining room (in the administration building, at the south end of campus). Besides conversation, our meetings include light food and drink, fellowship, and a brief prayer.

MIDWEEK BIBLE STUDY

Wednesday Bible study with John Wurster continues with a focus on the Gospel of John. While containing some of the most familiar passages in the whole Bible, John also offers a distinctive, often complex, presentation of Jesus. The class meets weekly in the dining room, 10:30 - 11:30 a.m.

PRESBYTERIAN MEN'S WEEKLY FELLOWSHIP

The Men's Weekly Fellowship meets every Friday in the Conference Room at 12:00 pm. They have selected Words Made Flesh by J. Pittman McGehee. Robert Estill has copies of the book available for $15. Those men who wish to participate should bring a bag lunch; refreshments will be provided. All men welcome. The group wraps up promptly at 1:00 pm.

MONTHLY BOOK GROUP

A monthly interest group for women who like to read books, socialize, and have a night out meets the 2nd Thursday of each month at 7:00 p.m. at a member's home. At our next meeting, April 14, we will have our social gathering at an area restaurant. Check your email for details. This self-led, interactive group produces lively discussions and wonderful fellowship. For more information go to: <http://saintphilip.net/BookGroup.html>

HELP!!!

The Presbytery of New Covenant has been seeking congregations to join in supporting the Montrose Street Reach Ministry, which has been serving the homeless from the Presbytery Center's parking lot every Wednesday night for over ten years. The young adults are making this ministry their mission. Every 4th Wednesday of the month during 2016, the young adults will supply and serve snacks to homeless persons.

The Young Adults are asking the congregation to join them in donating individually packaged snacks (granola bars; or peanut butter, goldfish, or animal crackers, etc.) and leave them in the marked box in the Gathering Area or the church office. Easy-to-chew snacks are especially helpful (Fig Newtons, chewy granola bars, etc.) The Young Adults of St. Philip will distribute the snacks at the Presbytery Office.

ARTS & CRAFT STUDIO

The next scheduled Saturday craft is April 2, from 12 p.m. till 3 p.m. RSVP to Lorrie. Bring a snack to share with everyone. Have any type of craft project that you would like to work on and just need the company? Come join us! Contact lorrie@saintphilip.net or 832-262-1244.

Julia Fox made her Carnegie Hall debut on Saturday evening March 12. She presented the world premiere of George Heath's Psalm 88 with Duo Scordatura. Julia began singing at St. Philip Presbyterian Church as a three-year-old and has been with us ever since! Children and Youth Choir Directors, Miss Mary Linda and Miss Cynthia, were crucial to Julia's development as a singer. The love and encouragement of this congregation continue to nurture her. Soli Deo Gloria!

Dear Jenilee,

We are very grateful to St. Philip Presbyterian Church for designating its February communion offering to our ministry, and for its ongoing support.

Thank you also for participating with us in praying each week for people in Bangladesh. Your being with us as we face these realities gives us much encouragement.

Grace and peace,
Les

$2884 was received in the February communion offering for the Morgans. Thank you for your generous contributions. The Mission Committee

1. Chi Ro—not technically a Christian cross, it invokes the authority of Jesus. The first two (capital) letters of Chi and Rho (XP) of the Greek word “ΧΡΙΣΤΟΣ” = KRistos = Christ
2. The session is the council of the congregation. The session members govern the congregation and guide its witness to the sovereign activity of God in the world, so that the congregation is and becomes a community of faith, hope, love and witness. Additionally, they hold quarterly meetings (St. Philip’s session meets monthly). They keep the church minutes and records, membership roll, registers, and finances.

Dear St. Philippians:

You have been the “great cloud of witnesses” who have surrounded us for sometime with encouragement, affection and prayers during H.L.’s health decline and recent death.

Your thoughtful expression of love and concern have sustained our family. How fortunate we are to be in this caring, Christian community of faith.

With love and gratitude,

Skip, Dave & Chuck Britton

This year’s speaker for the Duerr Lecture Series, Dr. Joshua Ralston, held everyone’s attention for his lectures, Bearing Witness: Reframing Christian-Muslim Encounters, attended by a full house every night, including many visitors. The topic was timely and Dr. Ralston was very articulate and knowledgeable as well as energetic in his presentation. If you missed the lectures, or had to miss one or two, you can still order a set of CDs by contacting Elizabeth Duerr or Roderick James. For people who live out of town, you can order a set on the St. Philip webpage, www.saintphilip.net, under Contribution, “designated giving,” CD Duerr Lectures. The cost online is $15.00 which includes mailing.

The lecture series has become a vital part of the life of St. Philip, and next year’s lectures will be the 20th year of this series which was established in memory of W. Chris Duerr, member and Elder at St. Philip. The speaker in 2017, Dr. Margaret Aymer, is Associate Professor of New Testament at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary, having joined that faculty in July, 2015, from the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta.

Degrees held by Dr. Aymer are the PhD in New Testament and Early Christianity, and the MDiv from Union Theological Seminary in New York, and the BA in U.S. History from Harvard University. She has published four books and numerous journal articles and book chapters and is active in the Society of Biblical Literature and American Academy of Religion. She has served the PCUSA in many ways including having served on the Presbyteries’ Cooperative Committee on Examinations since 2010, moderating the six persons who write the Bible Exegesis Ordination Examination for the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

Dates for next year’s lectures will be February 26, 27, and 28, 2017... put it on your calendar now!
