WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

The Welcoming and Membership Committee welcome the following new members and invite you to do the same:

Dorothy grew up in Hereford, Texas, and attended Texas Tech University. She is a retired teacher and currently serves on the Board of United Campus Ministry of Greater Houston (UCMGH). Dorothy is Guinn Blackwell Eagleson mother, whom we know as the former University of Houston Campus Ministry pastor and guest pastor at SPPC.

Dorothy knew us through friends, and enjoyed our worship, friendly congregation, our ministers and staff and our music and programs offered. She is interested in the many opportunities offered by education, worship, missions, and fellowship.

Michelle Aldrich—Michelle comes to us by letter of transfer from First Presbyterian Church, Houston. She grew up in Houston, and is currently studying law at University of Houston. She stays active by playing adult league soccer a few times a week.

Michelle is the daughter of Guy and Melissa Aldrich. She likes our friendly congregation, and is interested in involvement in the Peacemaking and Social Justice committee.

Mary Bates Bentsen—Mary comes to us by letter of transfer from First Presbyterian Church, Houston. She grew up in Houston and attended River Oaks Elementary, Kinkaid, Lamar High School, Mt. Vernon College and University of Texas at Austin.

Mary currently lives at The Hallmark. She has always known of our church and found the worship, congregation, staff, music, and the location to be the perfect match. Mary indicates interest in worship, welcoming and membership, fellowship, and peacemaking and social justice.

Virginia McMaster—Virginia, or Ginger as she is sometimes called, has come to us by letter of transfer from Memorial Drive Presbyterian, via the Presbytery of New Covenant. She grew up in Baton Rouge, LA and attended college at University of Houston where she earned a B.S. in Finance. Virginia is a retired certified financial planner. Now that she has time outside of work, she enjoys adventure travels, bird-watching, and singing in multiple choirs including SPPC. She is an accomplished alto!

Virginia comes from a pastoral family; her father was a Disciples of Christ minister in Baton Rouge. She heard about SPPC from friends and liked our staff, congregation, music program and the variety of additional programs offered.

Thomas Jack Weeda Jr.—Tom comes to us by reaffirmation of faith from Grace Community Church in Raleigh, N.C. He grew up in western Michigan and northwest New Mexico, and studied at New Mexico School of Mines. Currently he is the Senior Manager of Environmental, Health and Safety Audits.

Dear Friends,

Omar Rouchon joined our staff in June of 2015, having just graduated from Harvard Divinity School. Though he had received the Master of Divinity degree from Harvard, Omar still had further requirements to meet before he could be ordained as a Minister of Word and Sacrament in the Presbyterian Church (USA), and so he was given the title "Ministry Associate." In this role, Omar has provided leadership for our educational ministry, particularly with children and families. Additionally, he has shepherded our Primitimers program, resourced various committees, and shared in pastoral visitations and worship leadership. Essentially, Omar has functioned among us as a pastor, though without the full credentials and sanction that ordination confers.

Over this past year, Omar has completed all of his ordination requirements, including a final assessment by his home presbytery in New York. Now that he is eligible for ordination, the Session has inquired with our presbytery about a process through which a call might be extended to him and he could then be ordained and installed as associate pastor at St. Philip.

While other staff members are hired by action of the Session, pastors are called by the vote of the congregation with the concurrence of the presbytery. Ordinarily, the call process involves the congregation electing a pastor nominating committee, which is tasked with conducting a search and bringing a final candidate to the congregation for election, a process that can take a year or more. Recognizing that our situation with Omar falls outside the ordinary course, the presbytery has given us permission to pursue a stream-lined process known as a designated pastor search.

In this process, the congregation still elects a pastor nominating committee (PNC), which then conducts a search and brings a final candidate to the congregation for election. However, rather than initiating a general search that might generate scores of names, the PNC will receive a small selection of possible candidates directly from the presbytery; one of the suggested candidates will be Omar. After reviewing the materials from those persons the presbytery has sent, the PNC can decide if it wants to conduct further interviews. This review and consideration is the means through which the PNC tests the proposition that Omar indeed is the one God is calling to serve at St. Philip. When the PNC is satisfied and the presbytery approves, the congregation will meet to vote on extending a call.

While there is an assumption that this designated search process will conclude with Omar being presented to the congregation for election as associate pastor, there is also room in this process for the elected PNC to discern another direction and present a different final candidate to the congregation. I believe we are invited to let the process unfold and to trust that God is in it. We begin this journey on October 16 with a congregational meeting during which we will create a designated associate pastor position and then elect persons to serve on a designated associate pastor nominating committee. Once elected, this committee will likely complete its work in a few months.

While there are some features of this process that feel unfamiliar and even odd to me (and perhaps to many of you), I am trusting the direction of the presbytery and the reports of similar situations where this process has been utilized effectively. Beyond the matters of process and polity, I have no doubt about Omar's rich gifts for ministry and the correspondence between those gifts and our needs at St. Philip.

Faithfully yours,

Stewardship 2017: Growing in Grace and Gratitude

One of the signs of Grace in our midst is the one we see frequently on our St. Philip billboard: "All Are Welcome!" It proclaims our commitment to bringing the kingdom of God into our everyday lives here and now. It expresses our joy over God's love of ALL the people of our world. It announces the fact that we open our doors and hearts to everyone who wishes to join in our journey with Jesus.

In this world that often seems difficult and cruel, the Grace of God is far more than just a positive thought. It is the strength that carries us in hard times. It is the salvation that is our ultimate hope. It is the priceless gift that makes our hearts grateful and turns our lives to caring for and helping others.

"Growing in Grace and Gratitude" is the title of the fall curriculum for our grade-school children. It seems to catch the spirit present at St. Philip, so the Stewardship committee adopted it as our theme for this year. Just as children grow in God's Grace, so do we all. Our lives are enriched by the interactions we have with each other as we praise God and do our best to serve God's good creation. Let us keep these thoughts in our hearts as we prepare to make our commitments to God for 2017.

Romans 5:1-2 "Therefore since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in our hope of sharing the Glory of God."

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING OCTOBER 16

The Session has revised the call for a congregational meeting for October 16 immediately following the 11:00 service. The purpose of the meeting is:

- To consider a recommendation from the Trustees that the church sell property north of FM 1960 to Harris County Flood Control District. The property consists of eight tracts of unimproved land that was given to the church in the 1980's. The negotiated sale price is $10,143.21. After the sale, the property would become part of the county's Cypress Creek Greenway Project;
- To act on a report from the Congregational Nominating Committee for the election of ruling elders, deacons, and trustee;
- To consider a recommendation from the Session that the church establish the position of Designated Associate Pastor.
- To elect a Designated Associate Pastor Nominating Committee (DAPNC).

These last two items refer to correspondence between the Session and the Presbytery of New Covenant regarding a process through which Omar Rouchon might be called, ordained, and installed as associate pastor at St. Philip. See John Wurster's column on page 2 for more information.

NEED TIME AND TALENT HELP?

Assistance using the online Time and Talent form will be available next Sunday, October 9 between services. Look for someone with a laptop in the Gathering Area or the Library.

DINNERS FOR EIGHT

Dinners for Eight is a fun and tasty fellowship opportunity. Dine with your Sunday friends in your home, their home, or the park. You will be placed with six to seven other individuals. Your group will meet four times between November and June. All you have to do is take one part of the meal - appetizers, salad, dessert, side dish, or beverages to these gatherings and host one of them at your home/alternate location and provide the entree at that time. Your group decides on time and day of week.

Whether you're single, engaged, married, wise beyond your years, a professional chef or just a backyard BBQ master, you'll get to know more church friends and how many fun things they do beyond Sundays. Sign up forms will be in the Gathering Area today through October 21.

SERVICE OF HEALING AND WHOLENESS

The next service of healing and wholeness will be October 23rd. In this service, we claim God's promise of well-being and seek God's healing touch in body, mind, and spirit. The service includes individual prayers with the laying-on of hands and anointing with oil, along with scripture readings and hymns. Those seeking healing in their own lives or in the lives of others are encouraged to attend, as well as those who feel called to pray with those who suffer. In gathering for this service, we acknowledge that all healing is from God, and we affirm that in the midst of illness, pain, and suffering, our relationship with God in Christ sustains us.

SAVE THE DATE

After 11:00 a.m. worship on October 30 the congregation will join together for a Stewardship Luncheon in the Fellowship Hall. We will discuss our plans for St. Philip as we Grow in Grace and Gratitude in the coming year and enjoy a delicious meal and good fellowship.

Grades 4 & 5—Room 103    Confirmation Class—Room 202

Youth Choir (Grades 6-12) - 4:30—Sanctuary

Youth Group (Grades 6-12) - 5:30—7:30 Youth Room

CHURCH & SOCIETY - Room 201 - October 9—Landslide Lyndon?: The 1964 Presidential Elections and the Realignment of American Political Values Why does a presidential contest that produced an unsurprising result with a landslide victory remain important a half-century after it occurred? Despite his record as the best legislative tactician to serve as president, Johnson never fully appreciated the shifting sands of national electoral politics, a problem that becomes clear when Democratic Party complacency with mid-century liberalism is juxtaposed against the burgeoning conservatism of the late twentieth-century Republican Party. This failure, and the results of the 1964 contest, are both causes and consequences of the social and political transformations of the 1960s led by Dr. Nancy Beck Young. October 16 - Living the Legacy: The Family of Leo and Marie Sprinz Schlamme presented by Judy Myers.

BIBLE STUDY – Room 204 – The class is engaged in a study of the book of 1 Samuel which tells of the rise of the kingdom of Israel and the eventual rise of David as their leader, revealing throughout the very human traits of the people involved in the narrative. The Bible study class utilizes the insights of a variety of scholars to expand our understanding of God's message of faithfulness to His people. Nancy Cook and Al Waldrop lead the discussions. All are welcome.

SPa—Room 200 - The SPa (Saint Philip Adults) class is a fellowship of adults from all walks of life who gather for learning and community. It is a conversation/dialogue-based/interactive class. Many members are of the age in which family/children obligations can take them away on Sundays. The curriculum is usually on a weekly basis or no more than a three-four week series so that all participants feel they can "jump back in" if they miss a week. SPa works hard to pray for one another and to get together outside of Sundays. In the next few classes, discussion will be about Lucas Hnath's play "The Christians." October 9—Read/discuss pages 69-79 (end of play) and look at play as whole. October 16—GUEST SPEAKER Mr. Skyler Gray, literary agent from The Alley Theatre, to discuss how the play was brought to Houston and how people responded.

CHILDREN'S CHAPEL

On the second and fourth Sunday of each month, children in pre-K through first grade are invited to attend Children's Chapel with Omar Rouchon and a parent-helper following the conversation with children during the 11 o'clock service. In the Children's Chapel, our young disciples learn the whos, whats, wheres, whens and whys of worship, while praying, singing and hearing God's word at an age-appropriate level. Children return to join the congregation in the first few pews on the lectern side of the church for the last hymn. Please contact Omar Rouchon if you have any questions. The next service is October 9th.

Jephtha sets an Old Testament tale about a warrior's foolish promise to God and its terrible consequences. The austere subject matter (from the Book of Judges) becomes pure gold in Handel's hands; his oratorio is full of beautiful melodies, searing choruses, even a surprise ending.

Our organist, Matthew Dirst is the Artistic Director of Ars Lyrica. Jephtha features a stellar cast of soloists, including Cecilia Duarte (a new soloist in our choir) and the award-winning Moores School Concert Chorale from the University of Houston. MINOR, BUT MIGHTY: YOUNG ADULT BIBLE STUDY OF THE MINOR PROPHETS

This fall, Young Adults will examine the some of the Minor Prophets together. These prophets are all the books of the Old Testament beginning with Hosea through Malachi and bear the title "Minor" because of their brevity, ranging in length from 1 to 14 chapters. Though we call them minor, they deliver mighty messages from God spoken to restore justice and righteousness in Israel. We will expand our perception of prophets beyond "those who see the future," widening our understanding of a tradition of visionary preachers raising their voices to call a community into a decision. J and Wendy Stewart will host us in their home at 6:30 p.m. on October 10, November 14, and December 12.

MONTROSE STREET REACH

NOMINATING COMMITTEE REPORT

Our Nominating Committee has met and would like to thank you for your suggestions for those to serve in the offices of Ruling Elder, Deacon, and Trustee. The following individuals will be nominated at the October 16th congregational meeting.

RULING ELDER, CLASS OF 2019

Janet Hess

Janet Hess is a ruling elder, having served on Session at St. Charles Presbyterian Church in New Orleans, where she was active on the missions committee. During that time, she participated in a mission trip to Cuba with the church youth group. Janet also led student service days, helping to gut houses after Hurricane Katrina, and taught in a temporary evacuation school in Houston. She also found a need for SAT tutoring in underserved Sharpstown and Westbury high schools. At St. Philip, Janet has been active in the choir and on the Welcoming and Membership Committee. Recently retired, she is becoming involved with local missions such as Presbyterian Children's Homes and Services, and international work with Living Waters for the World. Janet is a strong advocate of environmental stewardship and youth educational needs. She values the opportunity to serve on Session at St. Philip to contribute to the stewardship of our church's gifts for use in God's work.

William Rowe

William T. Rowe holds a bachelor's degree in business and psychology from Stephen F. Austin State University. He has more than 20 years of experience in information technology, specializing in infrastructure-related issues, in which he deals with people on a service level daily (and thoroughly enjoys communing with them to solve their problems). William has been a member of St. Philip for over five years and has served on the Communications Committee for almost the same length of time. He oversees the recording of the Sunday services, and edits and formats the services for online archiving on St. Philip's website. William feels blessed by the fellowship and support that he finds at St. Philip and looks forward to serving as a ruling elder.

Chuck Seidel

Chuck Seidel joined St. Philip last November and serves on the Mission Committee. Before joining St. Philip, he was a member of First Presbyterian Church, Houston, where he served as a deacon and a ruling elder. Chuck has always been involved in church-associated mission work, both locally (Habitat for Humanity, Private Sector Initiative) and internationally (in Honduras), and plans to continue this involvement at St. Philip.

Sandra Truxillo

Sandra Truxillo and her husband, Wayne, have been members of St. Philip since 1997. Before retirement, she had a career of more than 30 years in human resources and benefits management. Sandra has been involved with Presbyterian Women as a circle leader, moderator, cluster coordinator, and historian. She is on the Personnel Committee and volunteers in the church office on Thursdays.

Anne Wilson

Anne Wilson is the first-born in her Japanese-American family of five. From her earliest years in Pennsylvania, she wanted to be a teacher (partly to help others, partly to be in charge!). After receiving her degree in math from the College of Wooster, Anne married her high school sweetheart, Butch, and moved to Houston, where she taught math in public and private schools and served as a church educator at Memorial Drive, St. Philip, and Northwoods Presbyterian Churches. She feels St. Philip taught her the most about ministering to the entire body of Christ, and is eager to serve in a different capacity as a Session member. Anne's service to the larger church includes being a member of the Synod's Permanent Judicial Commission; treasurer, Association of Presbyterian Church Educators (APCE) South Central region; member of the Texas Presbyterian Foundation board of trustees; and a founding member, Presbytery SEALs (Seasoned Educators At Large). She is the recipient of the 2017 APCE Life Achievement Award. Anne and Butch celebrate their "first-date 50th anniversary" this Thanksgiving, and her favorite name now is what her three grandsons call her, "Gran."

Nancy Young

Nancy Beck Young is a life-long Presbyterian, and joined St. Philip in 2014. She is a member of the Education Committee, coordinates the acolytes, has volunteered with vacation Bible school, has helped with planning for Mo-Ranch, and is the co-leader of the Wednesday evening PW Circle. Nancy is a professor of history at the University of Houston, and the author of four books. She enjoys traveling, reading, gardening, films, food, and spending time with her family.

The Nominating Committee expects to have an additional nominee for ruling elder by October 9.

DEACON

Beth Atkinson

Beth Atkinson has been a member of St. Philip since 1991, and serves on the Mission Committee. She has served as a ruling elder, a deacon, and a teacher in St. Philip's pre-school, elementary, and junior-high church school classes. Beth is employed by Shell Oil Company and when not working, she enjoys traveling and watching any kind of sports.
