MUSIC AT ST. PHILIP~A MUSICAL MEDITATION FOR HOLY SATURDAY

Thank You!

To the close to one hundred St. Philip members and friends who made the recent presbytery meeting such a resounding success, thank you.

Thank you to...

...the guys who, under the leadership of John Lindsay, worked in the rain and parked cars even when there were no more places to put them...

...Tom and Matthew and the choir who showed the rest of the presbytery what good music should sound like...

...Elizabeth Duerr and her group who solved the complexities of registration and lunch ticket sales...

...the ushers, under Gary and Molly Boren Whitney, who crammed more people into St. Philip pews than there have ever been before...

...the greeters and guides, organized by Ellen MacDonald with her charts and maps, always smiling, always helpful...

...those of you who baked mountains of muffins and other goodies and helped Nan Schissler staff the hospitality room...

...Chuck Johnson, Jerre Douglas, and the lunch workers organized by Skip Britton who somehow fed over 300 people in slightly under 15 minutes, serving, as we heard from many people, "the best lasagna I've ever eaten"...

...Roderick James and James Cooper, photographers extraordinaire...

...Sandra Truxillo and Laurie Fontenbery, staying on the phones and delivering messages...

...Wilbert, Dimas, and an army of their church members without whom we could not have pulled it all off...

As one pastor of a small church said to us as he was leaving, "You have more volunteers that I have church members!"

We are eternally grateful,
Jane and Jeanie

Dear Friends

I am looking forward to my fourth Holy Week and Easter at St. Philip. Palm Sunday is March 29. We will worship as usual at 8:30 and 11:00. The 11:00 service includes a children's procession of palms, plus music from Jubilate! and the St. Philip Choir. Keatan is preaching that day. On Maundy Thursday, we worship at 7:00. We remember Jesus' final night with his disciples and his last meal with them. My sermon considers the verbs of that meal, the way Jesus takes, blesses, breaks, and shares the bread. Worship leaders include the St. Philip Choir. After communion, the chancel is stripped of decoration, symbolizing the abandonment of Jesus by his disciples and friends. We leave the sanctuary that night in silence.

On Good Friday we have two worship services. At 12 noon we commemorate the death of Jesus with scripture and song and in the presence of the veiled cross. At 8:00 we are holding a Service of Tenebrae. In this dramatic service, shadows slowly gather in the room as we encounter again the Passion of Jesus. With each reading, a candle is extinguished. The service concludes in darkness. We are also offering a worship opportunity on Holy Saturday at 5:00 p.m. Matthew Dirst and friends lead us in a musical meditation for Holy Week, exploring the depth and power of these days through music.

Easter Sunday is April 5. Our first service of Easter at 8:30 has us gather in the narthex and then proceed by candlelight into the dark sanctuary, which is then bathed in the light of the proclamation of resurrection. We then attend to key passages of the Bible, remembering God's saving acts, from the beginning of creation to the promise of a new creation. After the service of readings, we have a reaffirmation of baptism, and all are invited to come forward to the font. There we mark our foreheads with water, hearing again the promise that in Jesus Christ we belong to God forever. In between services, there is breakfast in Fellowship Hall along with Easter crafts for children. Around 10:30, we will have a new and improved egg hunt, vividly teaching all of us about the significance of Holy Week. Our 11:00 festival service of Easter includes music from The St. Philip Choir and a brass quintet. We celebrate with joy as we take the bread and share the cup and bear witness to God's love, a love stronger than death. We will also celebrate the confirmation of four of our youth.

In a variety of styles and through a range of emotions, Holy Week invites us to experience the fullness of the gospel. I urge you to seek the spiritual benefits of these days and these services through your participation in all that is before us.

Faithfully yours,

WELCOME NEWEST MEMBERS OF ST. PHILIP!

Tom and Barbara Cavanaugh

Tom and Barbara have just transferred to us from Memorial Drive Presbyterian Church. Tom grew up in Pittsburgh, PA, and attended Duquesne University and University of Iowa. He has lived in Houston since 1975 and is now retired. He is trying to decide how to spend his precious retirement time. He enjoys volunteer work and reading. Tom is already an active member of our Welcoming and Membership committee, which we are very excited about!

Barbara grew up in Newkirk and Moore, Oklahoma. She attended Oklahoma State and University of Houston, and is a psychotherapist. She has lived in Houston for 38 years, beating Tom by 13 years! They have 3 children and 6 grandchildren. Two of their children live here in Houston, the third lives in Boulder, Colorado. Barbara enjoys reading, gardening, crafts and her family and numerous friends. Welcome to St. Philip, Tom and Barbara!

Sarah Fish

Sarah comes to us from Westminster Presbyterian in Montgomery, AL. She attended Auburn University, and is currently working toward a doctorate at U of Houston. She stays busy by also instructing in HCC, and enjoys reading, visiting the theatre, and watching movies. St Philip was recommended to Sarah by her minister in Montgomery and a friend in the synod. She visited and was impressed by our worship service, our ministerial staff, and the variety of programs offered here. She is interested in being involved in Education and church school teaching, as well as Welcoming and Membership, and Fellowship and Caring at St. Philip. Please welcome Sarah to our church family.

David J. and Suzanne H. Kerr

David and Suzanne come to us from First Presbyterian Church in Houston. He is from the Detroit area and attended both Alma College in Michigan and Indiana University. Currently retired, David was in Management Development and Human Resources. Now he sings bass in the Saint Philip Choir, plays golf, and enjoys photography. David is a life-long Presbyterian. His father was a Presbyterian pastor.

Suzanne grew up in Victoria, Texas, and attended University of Texas at Austin, and then got her law degree from UT. She is currently retired, and enjoys writing, reading, art galleries and museums, movies, and keeping up with old friends. She also sings Soprano in the choir. Suzanne was very involved at First Presbyterian, and worked as a member of the For Uniti group to keep the church in the PC(USA). She and David share many friends here at St Philip; and have known of St. Philip for years. When they visited they were impressed with the worship service, friendliness, our staff, music program, and the variety of programs and activities hosted here. Please give a big welcome to David and Suzanne.

Taylor Williams Lawson

Taylor comes to us from Greensboro, NC, where he was a member of First Presbyterian church. He attended school at UNC, then BSBA and Emory University for graduate work. He spent some time in New York City after earning his graduate degrees. Maybe this explains his current hobby of exploring Houston and getting to know his new home. Currently he works as a Compensation Manager for a human resources consulting firm. Taylor read about St Philip on our website, and when he visited he liked our friendly congregation and Staff. He is interested in the Missions, Welcoming and Membership, and Fellowship and Caring committees. Welcome to St. Philip, Taylor!

Nathan Lee

Nathan has come to us from South Main Baptist Church here in Houston. He grew up in a very mobile family, as his dad was in the Air Force. Nathan attended Wheaton College in Illinois. He is a medical resident and spends most of his free time studying, cooking, and spending time with his 2 cats. Nathan was invited by a friend to visit St. Philip. He knows Keatan King, and is an organist, so he appreciates our music program. In addition to our friendly congregation, he is interested in our Youth Program, Welcoming and Membership and Fellowship and Caring. Please welcome Taylor to St. Philip.

Melanie White

Melanie comes to us from Trinity Episcopal Church in the Woodlands. She has 3 sons: George (12), Zack (13), and Luke (15). Melanie grew up in Oklahoma City, and attended Casady School, and then UVA. She works as an Analyst and in a supervisory capacity at Oxy, and in her spare time she loves to run and read. Melanie grew up in the Presbyterian Church, and is Bruce Johnson's sister. Bruce and McNair Johnson have been members here for many years, so it is a natural connection for Melanie. Melanie and her family are interested in our Youth Program, Worship, Missions, and Fellowship and Caring. Please extend a warm welcome to Melanie and the boys.

Jennifer Wilson and Rhonda Sands

Jennifer comes to us from Memorial Drive Presbyterian Church. She was born in Eagle Lake, TX, but grew up mainly in Houston, with some time spent in Arabia, Brazil, Louisiana, and California. She finished high school in San Fernando, CA and then did her undergraduate and law degrees at the University of Houston. She is currently an attorney, practicing business litigation. She and her partner Rhonda Sands have 3 grown children: Vicky (31), Billy (30), and Kim (29). They are close to their families and always look for opportunities to spend time together.

Rhonda also grew up in Houston and attended MDPC. She is a Presbyterian Elder. She attended UT at Austin, and is currently a banker at Patriot Bank. She and Jennifer met at church, and have been together for 11 years. Rhonda actually new Jennifer's children before she knew Jennifer, as she was a youth leader for the teenager's group.

Both Rhonda and Jennifer are looking for opportunities for Community Outreach at St Philip. They were invited by a friend, and enjoy the worship service, friendliness, location, and ministerial staff. They are also interested in continuing work with the Youth Program, Fellowship and Caring, and Peacemaking and Social Justice. Please extend a welcome to Jennifer, Rhonda, and their family.

DUERR LECTURE SERIES

This year’s speaker, Dr. Douglas F. Ottati, Craig Family Distinguished Professor of Reformed Theology and Justice at Davidson College, lectured on “Exploring the Teaching of Jesus.” Several people who attended the lectures commented that “he gave me a lot to think about.” His deep knowledge and very energetic style of lecturing prompted more than one to say they wished they could take a class from him.

Next year’s speaker is Joshua Ralston, Assistant Professor of Theology at Union Presbyterian Seminary in Richmond, VA. Ralston has the MDiv degree from Candler School of Theology at Emory University and is a candidate for ordination in the PCUSA. He will receive his PhD in June from the Graduate Division of Religion at Emory University. His dissertation “considers how Christians might bring [their] commitments concerning the Law, the Gospel, and the Kingdom of God into conversation and debate with Islamic perspectives on law (Shari’a) and the political order. This commitment to Christian-Muslim dialogue has been shaped not only through study, but more profoundly through teaching theology and interfaith relations in Nigeria and Egypt and living in Israel/Palestine.” He has presented numerous lectures on the subject of Christian-Muslim Relations and Dialogue. Mark your calendar now for the lectures: February 21, 22 and 23, 2016.
