

Preparation for Worship

*A crucial eccentricity of the Christian faith is the assertion that people are saved by grace.
There's nothing you have to do. There's nothing you have to do. There's nothing you have to do.*

✦ Prayer of Confession

Gracious God,
we want to give thanks,
but our sin gets in the way.
We want to live gratefully,
but we are so consumed with what we lack

You have blessed us and you care for us, but we are too busy to notice.
Forgive our sin.
Awaken us to your presence.
Redirect us to your way,
so that we can follow Jesus with praise and thanksgiving.

heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

Do you believe in the Holy Spirit?

the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the

Anthem

The Narrow Way

K. Lee Scott
(b. 1950)

Be near me, Lord, where'er I go;
Teach me what you would have me do;
Direct whate'er I think or say;
And lead me in the narrow way.

Prevent me, lest I harbor pride,
Lest I in my own strength confide;
Show me my weakness, let me see
I have my pow'r, my all in thee.

Assist and teach me how to pray;
Incline my nature to obey;
What you abhor, oh, let me flee,
And only love what pleases thee.

Be near me, Lord, where'er I go;
Teach me what you would have me do;
Direct whate'er I think or say;
And lead me in the narrow way.

— words by John Cennick (1718–1755)

Prayers of the People

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil;
for Thine is the Kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever. Amen.

MUSIC NOTES

Organ Music

This morning's opening voluntary is by British composer Andrew Carter, who began his musical career as a bass singer in the York Minster Choir, and later founded the Chapter House Choir at York Minster, which he directed for seventeen years. Long associated with Oxford University Press, Carter has composed numerous sacred choral works for church and cathedral choirs, as well as for choirs with orchestra. In the mid-1990s Carter was invited to write his Missa Sancti Pauli for the 1997 tercentenary of the building of Christopher Wren's St. Paul's Cathedral in London. He has also composed a number of large works for organ, including his Toccata on Veni Emmanuel (1995), Organ Concerto (2005), and Passacaglia (2007). Trumpet Tune was composed at York in 1986.

Herbert Murrill's vibrant 1949 Carillon for organ is a miniature toccata that sets agile passagework above purposeful chords, with flashes of brilliance from the pedal department too. Its varied meters and busy textures propel the music to a triumphant conclusion as today's closing voluntary. Murrill studied at the Royal Academy of Music in London and served as organ scholar at Worcester College, Oxford. He worked as a school music teacher, organist, and choirmaster until 1935, when he became musical director for the Group Theatre (Westminster Theatre, London). He joined the BBC in 1936, where he became music program organizer in 1942, and finally head of music in 1950. In addition, he was a professor of composition at the Royal Academy of Music from 1933 until his death.

Choral Music

This morning's introit is another of the short works by English composer, conductor and organist Eric Thiman, whose music we have been featuring in recent weeks here at St. Philip. Blessed Are They is No. 6 of 24 Introits, published in 1961 for four-part choir.

This morning's first anthem is by Irish composer and teacher Charles Wood, who studied with both Charles Villiers Stanford and Charles Hubert Hastings Parry at the Royal College of Music in London. Chiefly remembered for his Anglican church music, Wood taught at Cambridge, becoming the first director of music and organist at Gonville and Caius College in 1894, and later succeeding Stanford as Professor of Music following the latter's death in 1924. The Eyes of All Wait Upon Thee is a simple-but-strict canon at the fifth for four unaccompanied voices, each voice entering one measure apart, and a fifth lower than the preceding voice.

Today's second anthem is by Alabama composer K. Lee Scott, who is a prolific writer primarily of choral music and hymn tunes for the church, including SHADES MOUNTAIN (this month's Declaration for Forgiveness response), which has become one of the preeminent hymn settings of our time. The Narrow Way was published in 1993 and features a folk-like tune somewhat reminiscent of the English tune O WALY WALY in a setting for SATB voices and organ. Echoes of this morning's gospel reading are heard in the anthem's text by prolific 18th-century English hymn-writer John Cennick.

The images of light in this text are drawn from the ancient Christian vesper hymn Phos hilaron, which dates from at least the 3rd century. (For other versions, see nos. 671 and 672.) That rather brief original hymn is augmented here in the third stanza by language based on the Sanctus.
